

What Do I Feel? Lesson 5: Disagreements

Read the scenario below to the pupils then discuss the What do you think? Questions.

Scenario:

It was spring time and for the first time after school it was really quite light and warm. I asked my mum if I could go out and play with my friends. She said 'no' I had to do my homework first, have my dinner and then I could go out as it was going to be light for another 2 hours.

I was really upset because it would be easy to do my homework later and have my dinner when I came in at 7pm.

It had been a long time since I was outside playing. I thought the fresh air would be good for me and I would get to see my friends again. I was really annoyed and could not concentrate on my homework so I just wrote down anything that came to mind and left my dinner in protest.

Next morning I was very hungry and my teacher was not happy with the homework I produced.

What do you think?

Pupils Name:

| Group discussion points                                                                                   | Explain your answer |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------|
| Was her mum being fair?Yes • No •                                                                            |                            |
| Was her mum correct in wanting her to eat her dinner and do her homework before going out to play?Yes • No • |                            |
| Why does she need to see her friends at night when she sees them all day at school?Yes • No •                |                            |
| Should your homework always be done to the best of your abilityYes • No •                                    |                            |
| Is your homework more important than playing outside?Yes • No •                                              |                            |
| Is fresh air good for you?Yes • No •                                                                         |                            |
| Is eating your dinner at 7pm too late?Yes • No •                                                             |                            |
| Could there have been compromises made?Yes • No •                                                            |                            |
| Would this situation impact on your social and emotional wellbeing?Yes • No •                                |                            |